

PRICE MOVEMENT

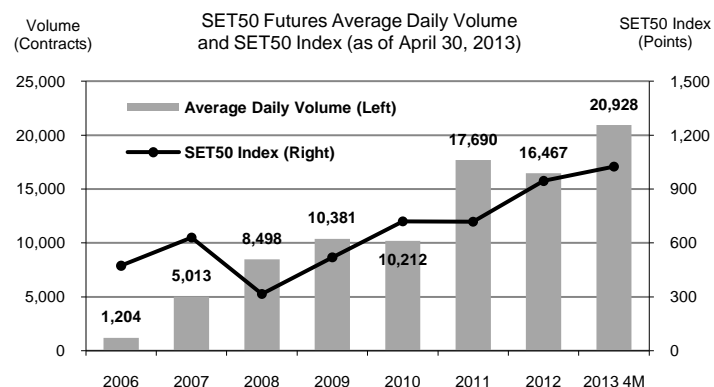

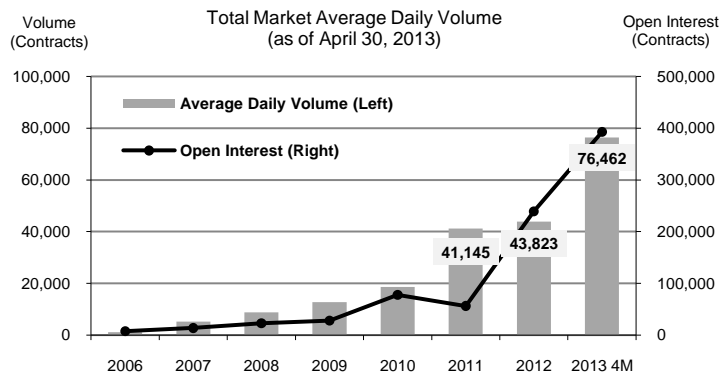

The SET50 Index climbed 30.70 points, or about 3.00% from the previous month closing at 1,055.62 points. A series of worse than expected economic data from the U.S. and China along with the tension in Korea pulled the SET50 below its 1,000 points support. However, the index climbed back up at the end of the month reaching a new high due to better than expected Q1 earnings reports from major companies around the world. The SET Index rose 36.80 points, or about 2.36% from the previous month closing at 1,597.86 points.

For precious metals, LBMA Gold A.M. and Silver Fixing for the end of April were at $1,472.75 and $24.42, respectively. The Brent Index was at $103.47 and the USD/THB was at 29.3140.
